

Girls' ESDAA Tournament Knockout

All Team members will participate. Players shoot from the free throw line and then follow it up. The next person follows and if the second person scores before the first, she is out. The ball is passed to the next person in line and play continues. The last two players from each Team go to a Championship round.

